ABOUT A SAFE HAVEN: A Safe Haven is a pioneer and national model for social enterprise. Our innovative model, anchored in success, is a vertically integrated “ecosystem,” focused on assessing, addressing and resolving homelessness and poverty. We provide phased housing (transitional, supportive, affordable and senior), nutrition, treatment, education, job training, access to employment and permanent housing. We serve more than 5,000 people annually including veterans, youth and women with children. Since inception, our work has been dedicated to addressing the root cause of poverty and homelessness with effective and cost-effective solutions that enable people to achieve sustainable self-sufficiency.
